THE HONOURABLE SRI JUSTICE
N.V.RAMANA

W.P.No.16076 of 2006

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed assailing the proceedings of the 2nd respondent-Depot Manager, A.P.S.R.T.C, Narsapuram Depot, Narasapuram, West Godavari in office Order No.01/2 (7)/2000-NSP, dated 15-5-2001 by which the petitioner who is a Driver was imposed a major punishment of deferment of annual increment for a period of one year with cumulative effect, without conducting any enquiry.

The penultimate paragraph of the impugned order of the respondent reads thus:

“I, therefore hereby order that your annual increment when next falls due be withheld for a period of one year which shall have the effect of postponing your future increments.”

It is the case of the petitioner that he is working as Driver at respondent-Depot and the 2nd respondent issued a charge-sheet dated 17-10-2000 on the allegation that the petitioner has committed accident on 18-9-2000, for which the petitioner submitted explanation. It is the further case of the petitioner that office Order No.01/2 (7)/2000-NSP, dated 15-5-2001 of 2nd respondent-Depot Manager, A.P.S.R.T.C, Narsapuram Depot, Narasapuram, West Godavari imposing punishment of deferment of annual increment with cumulative effect is a major punishment and cannot be imposed without conducting departmental enquiry and such imposition is contrary to law and contrary to the Judgment of the Supreme court in Kulwanth Singh Gill v. State of Punjab^[1], and due to such major punishment the petitioner is facing much financial problems as he is drawing less salary.

The learned Standing Counsel for respondent-A.P.S.R.T.C submitted that after giving careful consideration to the evidences available on record together with the enquiry report only the 2nd respondent has passed the impugned order, and prayed that no relief as claimed by the petitioner be granted.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned counsel for respondent-A.P.S.R.T.C and perused the impugned order as well as the Judgment of this Court in W.P.No.23114 of 2005, dated 27-10-2005.

Admittedly, the 2nd respondent without conducting departmental enquiry imposed the penalty of stoppage of annual increment for a period of one year, with cumulative effect on the basis of the charges leveled against the petitioner which is a major penalty as is held by this Court in a similar matter in W.P.No.23114 of 2005, dated 27-10-2005 following the Judgment of the Supreme Court in Kulwanth Singh Gill v. State of Punjab. The operative portion of the judgment in W.P.No.23114 of 2005, dated 27-10-2005 reads thus:

"In the ordinary course of things, the impugned order needs to be set aside, leaving it open to the respondent to pass fresh orders. To avoid further delay and complication in the matter, this court is of the view that the impugned order can be treated, as the one for stoppage of annual increment, without cumulative effect.

Hence, the writ petition is partly allowed, directing that the order dated 16-11-1993, passed by the respondent, shall be treated as the one for stoppage of annual increment, for a period of six months, without cumulative effect, and that the petitioner shall not be entitled for any monetary benefits up to the date of this order. There shall be no order as to costs."

In the above view of the matter, this writ petition is disposed of in terms of the judgment of this Court in W.P.No.23114 of 2005, dated 27-10-2005 directing the respondents as under.

The respondents are directed to treat the impugned office Order No.01/2 (7)/2000-NSP, dated 15-5-2001 as the one for stoppage of annual increment, for a period of one year without cumulative effect, and that the petitioner shall not be entitled for any monetary benefits up to the date of this order. No costs.

Date:3rd August, 2006.
